ABOUT EVANSVILLE

With a population of nearly 121,000 people in the city limits and more than 300,000 people in the metropolitan area, Evansville is the third-largest city in Indiana and full of family attractions, exciting nightlife, and the education and culture of seven themed museums. From Mesker Park Zoo to Eagle Valley Golf Course and a variety of hometown sports teams, Evansville is a great place to call home. It is also home to five unique cultural districts: The Downtown, Haynie's Corner Arts, North Main Street, University of Evansville and West Franklin Street. In each, you will find attractions, museums, restaurants, shops, cozy coffee spots, an urban area to take a walk, or a great place to hear live music.

If you love weekend getaways or day trips, Evansville is a short drive to several bustling metropolis cities. A short 2 hour drive will have you spending your day in Nashville, Tennessee, Louisville, Kentucky, Indianapolis, Indiana or St. Louis, Missouri.
