ABOUT FORT WAYNE

Today, Fort Wayne is not only the hub of three rivers, it is also a major metropolitan area and the second largest city in Indiana. Fort Wayne provides a rich range of artistic and cultural experiences. A night out on the town can mean enjoying a live performance at the Embassy Theatre or a concert by the Fort Wayne Philharmonic, or a visual stop at Fort Wayne Museum of Art to see the traveling exhibitions or works from the Museum's own permanent collection.

Fort Wayne is also known as the "City of Festivals," and for good reason! All year long, residents and visitors enjoy outstanding festivals and community events, including Johnny Appleseed Festival, Three Rivers Festival, GermanFest, RiverFest, BBQ Ribfest, Greekfest, Grabill Country Fair, Taste of the Arts, Vera Bradley Outlet Sale and so many more.
